Official Form 101

Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy

04/20

The bankruptcy forms use you and Debtor 1 to refer to a debtor filing alone. A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case—and in joint cases, these forms use you to ask for information from both debtors. For example, if a form asks, “Do you own a car,” the answer would be yes if either debtor owns a car. When information is needed about the spouses separately, the form uses Debtor 1 and Debtor 2 to distinguish between them. In joint cases, one of the spouses must report information as Debtor 1 and the other as Debtor 2. The same person must be Debtor 1 in all of the forms.

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known). Answer every question.

Part 5: Explain Your Efforts to Receive a Briefing About Credit Counseling

15. Tell the court whether you have received a briefing about credit counseling.

The law requires that you receive a briefing about credit counseling before you file for bankruptcy. You must truthfully check one of the following choices. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file.

If you file anyway, the court can dismiss your case, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors can begin collection activities again.

About Debtor 1:

You must check one:

- ☒ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, and I received a certificate of completion.

Attach a copy of the certificate and the payment plan, if any, that you developed with the agency.

- ☐ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, but I do not have a certificate of completion.

Within 14 days after you file this bankruptcy petition, you MUST file a copy of the certificate and payment plan, if any.

- ☐ I certify that I asked for credit counseling services from an approved agency, but was unable to obtain those services during the 7 days after I made my request, and exigent circumstances merit a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement.

To ask for a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement, attach a separate sheet explaining what efforts you made to obtain the briefing, why you were unable to obtain it before you filed for bankruptcy, and what exigent circumstances required you to file this case.

Your case may be dismissed if the court is dissatisfied with your reasons for not receiving a briefing before you filed for bankruptcy. If the court is satisfied with your reasons, you must still receive a briefing within 30 days after you file. You must file a certificate from the approved agency, along with a copy of the payment plan you developed, if any. If you do not do so, your case may be dismissed.

Any extension of the 30-day deadline is granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days.

- ☐ I am not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling because of:
- ☐ Incapacity.
I have a mental illness or a mental deficiency that makes me incapable of realizing or making rational decisions about finances.
- ☐ Disability.
My physical disability causes me to be unable to participate in a briefing in person, by phone, or through the internet, even after I reasonably tried to do so.
- ☐ Active duty.
I am currently on active military duty in a military combat zone.

If you believe you are not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling, you must file a motion for waiver credit counseling with the court.

Medical examination instructions

During the medical examination

The medical examination will include a medical history review, physical examination, chest X-ray, urine and blood tests (for applicants 15 years of age or older). The United States also requires tuberculosis (TB) testing for all applicants two years of age and older. Please be prepared to discuss your medical history, medications you are taking, and current treatments you are undergoing. More information on general medical requirements for U.S. immigrants is available here.

U.S. immigration law requires immigrant visa applicants to obtain certain vaccinations prior to the issuance of a visa. Current immigrant visa vaccination requirements are available here. You can also read Frequently Asked Questions about our medical examination requirements online.

After the medical examination

When your examination is completed, the doctor will provide you with examination results in a sealed envelope.

DO NOT OPEN THIS ENVELOPE. Instead, bring it to your visa interview.

Any x-rays taken will be delivered to you on a compact disc (CD). You DO NOT need to bring the x-rays to the visa interview unless you suffer from tuberculosis (TB). However, you must take the x-rays with you when you travel to the United States for the first time. The medical examination must be valid for less than 6 months upon entering the United States.

Pre-interview checklist ☒

Please use the list below to determine the items that every applicant must bring to the immigrant visa interview:

Interview Guidelines

Sending documents to the U.S. Consulate in Ciudad Juarez

If you need to send us any documents, please DO NOT mail them to us. Instead, visit ais.usvisa-info.com and ask for information on courier services.

Rescheduling or cancelling your interview

If you cannot attend your appointment, please go to mexico.usvisa-info.com for instructions on scheduling a new appointment date. There may be a significant wait before the next available appointment. For preference visa categories, visa availability is based on the month that the appointment has been scheduled, so we recommend that you attend your original appointment. DV applicants should be aware that visas are numerically limited and must be issued by September 30 of the program year. There is no guarantee that a visa will still be available on the date of your rescheduled interview. Please carefully consult the Visa Bulletin before you request to reschedule your interview.

NOTE: You need to register your original NVC appointment online before you can reschedule it. Rescheduling is only possible on a date after your assigned appointment.

Security screening procedures and arrival at the consulate

All visitors to the U.S. Consulate must follow certain security procedures. Any visitor who declines to be screened by U.S. Consulate security personnel will be unable to enter the consulate. Please read our list of prohibited items before your appointment. To avoid delaying your entry and that of those in line behind you, please bring only what is required for your interview. The consulate does not provide lockers or storage for personal items. If you leave items in your car, be sure to put them in the trunk and lock your car; do not leave any personal items in view in the passenger compartment.

On the day of your visa interview, do not arrive at the consulate more than 30 minutes before your appointment. Your place in line does not depend on when you arrived.

Notice for your protection: Since there have been frequent assaults and robberies near the consulate and the clinics where the medical examinations are conducted, we recommend the following to prevent this happening to you:

1. Do not talk to strangers on the street.
2. On the day of your appointment, do not go to the consulate before 6:00 a.m. It does not open until 6:30 a.m.
3. Carry the least amount of money possible in cash.
4. Do not allow random individuals in the street to give you advice or review your documents. All visa applications are reviewed and processed by consular staff inside the consulate on the day of your interview.
If you have any questions about obtaining a visa, the consulate has an information window open Monday-Friday from 7:30 a.m. – 1:00 p.m. No appointment is necessary and the applications and information are free.
5. Report any attempted robbery or assault to the consulate staff.

Immigrant visa fees

If you have not paid all required fees to either the National Visa Center or via the appointment website, please be prepared to pay these fees on the day of your interview. All fees for visa services are collected ONLY inside the medical clinics or inside the consulate. Neither the medical clinics nor the consulate staff will collect fees outside – all fees must be paid at the cashier inside the clinics or consulate. For accurate information about your visa case, consulate staff is available to answer your questions at the information windows. If you need to pay a fee on the day of your visa appointment, you must pay in U.S. dollars or Mexican pesos. We accept cash and credit or debit cards. If you are found ineligible to receive a visa, the application fee cannot be refunded. A complete list of fees can be found here.

Interview Guidelines

Accompanying persons

Only the following persons may accompany a visa applicant to their interview:

- Interpreter: Applicants may bring one interpreter if they do not speak English or Spanish well enough to participate in an interview.
- Special needs visitors: Applicants may bring ONE person to help if they are elderly, disabled, or a minor child (if you are accompanying a child to the interview, please bring a government issued photo ID).
- Minor children:
 - Any adult who accompanies a minor to a visa interview must possess a legal relationship to the minor and provide official government photo identification (such as your credencial para votar/tarjeta de elector issued by the Instituto Nacional Electoral – formerly the Instituto Federal Electoral, Mexican Passport or Driver's License).
 - If the accompanying adult does not have a legal relationship to the applicant, in addition to providing official government identification she or he must provide a notarized and signed affidavit from the minor's parent or legal guardian/custodian authorizing him or her to act as the minor's proxy.

Attorneys are not permitted to accompany clients into the consulate's waiting room nor to their interview. Anyone not listed above who accompanies a visa applicant to the consulate will need to wait outside the consulate and meet the applicant after his/her interview.

Dress appropriately for the interview and for the weather. Some of the consulate's waiting area is outside the building. You will not be allowed to bring in food or drink. Snacks and beverages are available for sale in the waiting area.

Do not make travel plans outside of Mexico

A consular officer can make a decision on a visa application only after reviewing the formal application and interviewing the applicant. There is no guarantee that you will receive a visa. Do not sell your house, car or property, resign from your job or make non-refundable flight or other travel arrangements until you have received your immigrant visa.

If your visa is approved, we will keep your passport at the consulate while we prepare your immigration packet and print a visa for your passport. We will return your passport and complete visa packet to you by DHL courier at a later date (see Step 1). If you have to travel within Mexico while your passport is still with us, please make sure you have a valid picture ID other than your passport.

If more information is needed

Sometimes a consular officer is unable to make a decision on a visa application because he/she needs to review additional documents or the case requires further administrative processing. When additional documents are requested, the consular officer will give you a refusal letter that asks you to submit additional documents. The letter will include instructions on how to send those documents to the consulate.

Administrative processing takes additional time after the interview. Most administrative processing is resolved within 60 days. However, the timing varies based on the circumstances of each case. Before inquiring about the status of administrative processing, please wait at least 60 days after your interview.

After Your Interview

What happens after your visa is approved

Passport, visa, and sealed immigrant packet – We will place your immigrant visa on a page in your passport. Please review your visa to make sure there are no spelling errors. We will also give you a sealed envelope containing documents that you must give to U.S. immigration authorities when you arrive in the United States for the first time. Do not open this envelope. You must carry it with you. Do not put it in your checked luggage. If during your medical examination you received a compact disc (CD) containing your chest X-rays, please keep your records for future medical references.

USCIS Immigrant Fee – All individuals who are issued immigrant visas overseas must pay an Immigrant Fee to United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) prior to traveling to the United States. This fee is for processing your residency status and printing your Permanent Resident Card. The only people exempt from paying this fee are children entering the United States under the Hague Process, returning residents, and people traveling on a fiancé(e) (K) visa.

When you should travel – You must enter the United States before the expiration date on your visa, which is usually six (6) months from the date of printing. Your visa cannot be extended and all fees are nonrefundable. The principal applicant must enter before or at the same time as other family members with visas. Unless they are eligible for benefits under the Child Status Protection Act, children who are issued a visa before turning 21 years of age must enter the United States before their 21st birthday to avoid losing their immigrant status.

Getting a Green Card – Your Form I-551 Permanent Resident Card, also known as a green card, will be automatically mailed to the address in the United States that you write in your visa application form (form DS-260). This document proves you have permission to reside in the United States. If you plan to travel outside the U.S. before your green card arrives: Please consult the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) and U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) websites for rules about what documents you need to re-enter the country. We also recommend you check with the airline to ensure you are in compliance with their rules. Once your card is issued, you should not stay outside of the United States for more than one year. If you do, you will lose your status as a Lawful Permanent Resident.

Children's issues – In the United States, children are required to have certain vaccinations before they can enroll in school. We recommend that you bring your child's complete vaccination records with you to the United States. If your child is adopted, you have full custody as a result of a divorce, or you share custody with another parent, you should bring a photocopy of all applicable adoption or custody documents from the authoritative court in your home country. You will need these papers translated into English, for issues such as school enrollment, medical care, and eventual citizenship. If you are accompanying a child to the interview, please bring a government issued photo ID.

Information for new immigrants – Please visit the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) web page for helpful information on moving to the United States. You can read their publication: "Welcome to the United States: A Guide for New Immigrants" online.

Diversity Visa Applicants – Additional Information

If you are applying for a Diversity Visa (DV), most of the above instructions apply to you. Please gather the required documents and attend a medical examination prior to your visa interview. Your photo and fingerprints will be taken at the consulate on the date of your interview, and the visa package will be delivered to the consulate.

Below are additional instructions that apply only to DV applicants.

Bring to your interview

In addition to the documents listed on the Pre-interview checklist in this package, DV applicants should also bring the following items to your visa interview:

- ☐ Appointment information printed from the “Entrant Status Check” on the E-DV website.
- ☐ Documents showing that you have either a qualifying high school education or two (2) years of qualifying work experience in the five (5) years immediately prior to application (for the principal applicant only; more information is available online).
- ☐ Diversity Visa Application Fee for each visa applicant.

Review your DV Lottery entry

Prior to your visa interview, we recommend that you review the data on your initial E-DV entry. On your initial E-DV application, you must have correctly entered your marital status. If you are legally married you must have listed your spouse, even if you are currently separated from him/her (unless your spouse is a U.S. citizen or Lawful Permanent Resident).

Additionally, you must have listed ALL of your living children who are unmarried and under 21 years old. This includes your natural children, your spouse’s children, or children you have formally adopted in accordance with the laws of your country.

Failure to have listed an existing spouse or children at the time of your entry in the Diversity Visa lottery will result in the denial of your visa and visas for your family. Any fees paid to the U.S. government in support of your visa application(s) are nonrefundable. If you failed to include a child who had already been born, or a spouse to whom you were married when you entered the lottery, you should not proceed with the visa application. You can review the eligibility requirements online.

Un oficial consular solo puede tomar una decision sobre su aplicación despues de revisar formalmente la informacion y entrevistar al aplicante. No hay garantia de que recibira la visa. No venda su casa, automóvil o propiedades, tampoco renuncie a su trabajo o haga reservaciones de vuelos sin reembolso u otros arreglos de viaje hasta que no haya recibido su visa. Si su visa es aprobada, mantendremos su pasaporte en el consulado mientras preparamos su paquete migratorio e imprimimos su visa. Le devolveremos su pasaporte y su paquete de visa por mensajería DHL en fecha posterior (Paso 1). Si tiene que viajar dentro de México mientras su pasaporte está con nosotros, cerciórese de tener otra identificación con fotografía válida.

Guía de entrevista

Acompañantes

Solo las siguientes personas pueden acompañar a un solicitante en su cita para entrevista:

- Intérprete: El solicitante puede ingresar con un intérprete si no domina el español o el inglés como para interactuar en una entrevista.
- Solicitantes con necesidades especiales: Los solicitantes pueden traer a una persona que les ayude si son adultos mayores, discapacitados, o niños menores de edad (si acompaña a un niño a la entrevista, por favor traiga una identificación con foto emitida por el gobierno).
- Niños menores de edad:
 - Cualquier adulto que acompañe a un menor de edad a su entrevista de visa de residencia debe poseer una relación legal ante el menor y proporcionar una identificación oficial con fotografía que facilite la verificación de la relación entre el acompañante y el menor (tal como su credencial para votar/tarjeta de elector expedida por el Instituto Nacional Electoral – anteriormente conocido como el Instituto Federal Electoral, pasaporte mexicano o licencia para conducir).
 - Si el adulto que acompaña al menor no posee una relación legal ante el menor, el acompañante deberá presentar, en adición a una identificación oficial con fotografía, una declaración notariada y firmada por uno de los padres o el guardián/custodio legal del menor autorizándole al acompañante el fungir como el apoderado del menor.

Los abogados no están autorizados a acompañar a los clientes a la sala de espera del consulado o a la entrevista. Cualquier acompañante que no figure en la lista anterior deberá esperar afuera del consulado a que concluya la entrevista del solicitante.

Deberá vestirse apropiadamente para su entrevista considerando las situaciones climáticas, parte del área de espera del consulado está afuera del edificio. No se le permitirá ingresar comida o bebida. Encontrará alimentos disponibles para la venta dentro de la sala de espera.

Tarifa de la visa de inmigrante

Si usted no realiza el pago de su entrevista en el Centro Nacional de Visas o a través de la página web, por favor esté preparado para realizar el pago el día de su entrevista, cualquier pago por servicios o trámites consulares se deberá realizar dentro de las instalaciones de las clínicas o del consulado. Ni las clínicas, ni el personal del consulado pueden cobrar algún pago fuera de las instalaciones de las instituciones oficiales – los trámites o servicios solo podrán pagarse en los cajeros dentro de las clínicas y del consulado. Para información actualizada y correcta respecto a su caso, el personal del consulado está disponible para responder a sus dudas en las ventanillas de información. Si debe realizar un pago el día de su entrevista, podrá efectuar el pago en dólares de los Estados Unidos, o en pesos mexicanos; aceptamos efectivo y tarjetas de crédito o débito. Tenga en cuenta que si usted es encontrado inelegible para recibir una visa, el pago por su entrevista no será reembolsable. Una lista completa de los costos de servicios y trámites consulares se encuentra en el siguiente enlace.

Si se requiere más información

En ocasiones el oficial consular no puede realizar alguna determinación respecto a su caso debido a que requiere información adicional, o el caso requiere de un proceso administrativo. Cuando se solicitan documentos adicionales, el oficial consular le entregará una carta de rehusado especificando los documentos que debe enviar. La carta incluirá las instrucciones de cómo enviar los documentos al consulado. El proceso administrativo toma tiempo adicional después de la entrevista. La mayoría de los procesos administrativos se resuelven en un lapso de 60 días. Sin embargo el tiempo varía según las circunstancias del caso. Antes de preguntar por el estatus del caso, espere por lo menos 60 días después de la entrevista.

Después de su entrevista

Que pasa cuando la visa se aprueba

Paquete sellado con pasaporte y visa enviados por mensajería DHL – La visa de inmigrante se imprime en el pasaporte, revísela para asegurarse de que no tenga errores ortográficos. También le entregaran un sobre sellado que contiene documentos que se deben entregar a las autoridades migratorias de los Estados Unidos cuando ingrese a los Estados Unidos por primera vez. NO ABRA EL SOBRE. Debe llevar consigo el sobre en todo momento por lo que no debe guardarlo en el equipaje documentado. Si durante su examen médico recibió un disco compacto CD que contiene la radiografía de tórax; guárdelo para sus archivos y asegúrese de que el departamento de salud lo reciba una vez que usted este en los Estados Unidos.

Pago de la cuota de inmigrante a USCIS – Todos las personas que reciben una visa de inmigrante en el extranjero deben realizar un pago por la tarjeta de inmigrante Immigrant Fee a los Servicios de Ciudadanía e Inmigración de los Estados Unidos (USCIS, por sus siglas en inglés) previo a su viaje en los Estados Unidos. Este pago se realiza por procesar el estatus de residencia e imprimir la tarjeta de residente permanente. Las únicas personas exentas de realizar este pago son los niños ingresando a los Estados Unidos bajo el proceso de La Haya, los residentes que regresan y las personas que viajan con una visa de prometido(a) K.

Cuando debe de viajar – Usted debe ingresar en los Estados Unidos antes de la fecha de expiración de su visa, que normalmente es de seis meses o menos desde la fecha de expedición. La validez de la visa no puede ser extendida y los pagos realizados no son reembolsables. El solicitante principal debe ingresar antes o al mismo tiempo que los otros miembros de la familia que tramitaron sus visas. Los menores de 21 años que no sean elegibles para beneficios de protección bajo la Ley de Protección del Estado del Menor deben de ingresar a los Estados Unidos antes de su cumpleaños 21 para evitar perder su estatus migratorio.

Obtener la tarjeta de residencia – Su tarjeta de residente permanente I-551, también conocida como tarjeta de residencia “green card”, será enviada automáticamente a la dirección en los Estados Unidos que usted seleccionó en su aplicación de visa de inmigrante (formato DS-260). Este es un documento muy importante que prueba el permiso que tiene usted para residir en los Estados Unidos. Si planea viajar fuera de los Estados Unidos antes de que reciba su tarjeta de residencia (green card): Consulte los sitios web de los Servicios de Ciudadanía e Inmigración de los Estados Unidos y de Aduanas (USCIS's) y (CBP's) para conocer la regulación que indica que documentos necesitara para re-ingresar al país. También le recomendamos que revise con la aerolínea para asegurarse que cumple con todas sus reglas. Una vez que su tarjeta haya sido expedida, no debe permanecer fuera de los Estados Unidos por más de un año. Si lo hace puede perder su estatus como residente legal permanente.

Información relacionada con menores – En los Estados Unidos, los niños deben tener ciertas vacunas antes de inscribirse en la escuela. Le recomendamos que lleve el registro completo de vacunas de su hijo con usted a los Estados Unidos. Si su hijo fue adoptado, tiene custodia plena como resultado de un divorcio, o comparte la custodia con el otro padre, deberá llevar una copia de los documentos de adopción o custodia, emitidos por la autoridad competente de su país. Necesitará traducirlos al inglés para cuestiones relacionadas con inscripción escolar, servicios de salud y una eventual ciudadanía.

Información para nuevos inmigrantes – Favor de visitar la página de Servicios de Ciudadanía e Inmigración de los Estados Unidos (USCIS) para obtener información útil en cuanto a cómo mudarse a los Estados Unidos. Para mayor información puede leer la publicación "Bienvenidos a los Estados Unidos: Una Guía para Nuevos Inmigrantes" en línea.

Instrucciones de visa Diversidad – información adicional

Si usted está solicitando una visa de diversidad (DV por sus siglas en inglés), también siga las instrucciones anteriores. Deberá completar una examinación médica previo a su entrevista de visa de inmigrante y obtener los documentos requeridos.

La toma de fotos y huellas, y la entrega del paquete de la visa junto con el pasaporte se realizarán directamente en el consulado.

A continuación se presentan instrucciones que aplican solo a los solicitantes de visas DV.

Llevar a su entrevista

Además de los documentos enlistados en la “Lista previa a entrevista” dentro de este paquete, los solicitantes DV deben llevar los siguientes documentos a su entrevista:

- ☐ Llevar impresa la información de cita de entrevista, la cual puede obtener de “Entrant Status Check” en el página web de E-DV.
- ☐ Documentos que demuestren la finalización de sus estudios de preparatoria o dos años de experiencia laboral calificada en los últimos 5 años inmediatamente anteriores a la solicitud de visa (para el solicitante principal solamente; si requiere más información está disponible en línea).
- ☐ El pago por la solicitud de la visa de diversidad por cada solicitante.

Verificación de información para su visa de diversidad

Antes de su entrevista, le recomendamos que revise la información que ingreso en su aplicación de visa de diversidad (E-DV entry). En su aplicación inicial debe ingresar correctamente su estado civil. Si está casado(a) ingrese la información de su esposo(a), incluso si ya se encuentra separado de él/ella (a menos que su esposo(a) sea un ciudadano estadounidense o residente legal permanente).

Adicionalmente debe nombrar a todos sus hijos solteros menores de 21 años. Esto incluye a sus hijos biológicos, hijos de su cónyuge, o los hijos que haya adoptado legalmente de acuerdo a las leyes de su país.

El incumplimiento de enlistar a su esposo(a) e hijos al momento de ingresar su información completa en la lotería de la visa de diversidad resultará en el rechazo de su visa y la de su familia. Cualquier pago realizado al gobierno de los Estados Unidos relativo a sus aplicaciones de visa no son reembolsables. Si usted no incluye a su esposo(a) o a sus hijos que ya habían nacido cuando aplico a la lotería, su solicitud no procederá. Puede revisar los requisitos de elegibilidad en línea.

Official Form 106C

Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt

4/19

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. Using the property you listed on Schedule A/B: Property (Official Form 106A/B) as your source, list the property that you claim as exempt. If more space is needed, fill out and attach to this page as many copies of Part 2: Additional Page as necessary. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).

For each item of property you claim as exempt, you must specify the amount of the exemption you claim. One way of doing so is to state a specific dollar amount as exempt. Alternatively, you may claim the full fair market value of the property being exempted up to the amount of any applicable statutory limit. Some exemptions—such as those for health aids, rights to receive certain benefits, and tax-exempt retirement funds—may be unlimited in dollar amount. However, if you claim an exemption of 100% of fair market value under a law that limits the exemption to a particular dollar amount and the value of the property is determined to exceed that amount, your exemption would be limited to the applicable statutory amount.

Part 1: Identify the Property You Claim as Exempt

1. Which set of exemptions are you claiming? Check one only, even if your spouse is filing with you.

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. Using the property you listed on Schedule A/B: Property (Official Form 106A/B) as your source, list the property that you claim as exempt. If more space is needed, fill out and attach to this page as many copies of Part 2: Additional Page as necessary. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).

For each item of property you claim as exempt, you must specify the amount of the exemption you claim. One way of doing so is to state a specific dollar amount as exempt. Alternatively, you may claim the full fair market value of the property being exempted up to the amount of any applicable statutory limit. Some exemptions—such as those for health aids, rights to receive certain benefits, and tax-exempt retirement funds—may be unlimited in dollar amount. However, if you claim an exemption of 100% of fair market value under a law that limits the exemption to a particular dollar amount and the value of the property is determined to exceed that amount, your exemption would be limited to the applicable statutory amount.

Part 1: Identify the Property You Claim as Exempt

1. Which set of exemptions are you claiming? Check one only, even if your spouse is filing with you.

- ☒ You are claiming state and federal nonbankruptcy exemptions. 11 U.S.C. § 522(b)(3)
- ☐ You are claiming federal exemptions. 11 U.S.C. § 522(b)(2)

2. For any property you list on Schedule A/B that you claim as exempt, fill in the information below.

Notice Required by 11 U.S.C. § 342(b) for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Form 2010)

This notice is for you if:

You are an individual filing for bankruptcy,
and

Your debts are primarily consumer debts.
Consumer debts are defined in 11 U.S.C.
§ 101(8) as "incurred by an individual primarily for a personal, family, or household purpose."

The types of bankruptcy that are available to individuals

Individuals who meet the qualifications may file under one of four different chapters of Bankruptcy Code:

Chapter 7 - Liquidation

Chapter 11 - Reorganization

Chapter 12 - Voluntary repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen

Chapter 13 - Voluntary repayment plan for individuals with regular income

You should have an attorney review your decision to file for bankruptcy and the choice of chapter.

Chapter 7: Liquidation

$245	filing fee
$78	administrative fee
+	$15 trustee surcharge
$338	total fee

Chapter 7 is for individuals who have financial difficulty preventing them from paying their debts and who are willing to allow their non-exempt property to be used to pay their creditors. The primary purpose of filing under chapter 7 is to have your debts discharged. The bankruptcy discharge relieves you after bankruptcy from having to pay many of your pre-bankruptcy debts. Exceptions exist for particular debts, and liens on property may still be enforced after discharge. For example, a creditor may have the right to foreclose a home mortgage or repossess an automobile.

However, if the court finds that you have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge.

You should know that even if you file chapter 7 and you receive a discharge, some debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible to pay:

most taxes;

most student loans;

domestic support and property settlement obligations;

most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; and certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers.

You may also be required to pay debts arising from:

fraud or theft;

fraud or defalcation while acting in breach of fiduciary capacity;

intentional injuries that you inflicted; and death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs.

If your debts are primarily consumer debts, the court can dismiss your chapter 7 case if it finds that you have enough income to repay creditors a certain amount. You must file Chapter 7 Statement of Your Current Monthly Income (Official Form 122A-1) if you are an individual filing for bankruptcy under chapter 7. This form will determine your current monthly income and compare whether your income is more than the median income that applies in your state.

If your income is not above the median for your state, you will not have to complete the other chapter 7 form, the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A-2).

If your income is above the median for your state, you must file a second form—the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A-2). The calculations on the form—sometimes called the Means Test—deduct from your income living expenses and payments on certain debts to determine any amount available to pay unsecured creditors. If your income is more than the median income for your state of residence and family size, depending on the results of the Means Test, the U.S. trustee, bankruptcy administrator, or creditors can file a motion to dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. If a motion is filed, the court will decide if your case should be dismissed. To avoid dismissal, you may choose to proceed under another chapter of the Bankruptcy Code.

If you are an individual filing for chapter 7 bankruptcy, the trustee may sell your property to pay your debts, subject to your right to exempt the property or a portion of the proceeds from the sale of the property. The property, and the proceeds from property that your bankruptcy trustee sells or liquidates that you are entitled to, is called exempt property. Exemptions may enable you to keep your home, a car, clothing, and household items or to receive some of the proceeds if the property is sold.

Exemptions are not automatic. To exempt property, you must list it on Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt (Official Form 106C). If you do not list the property, the trustee may sell it and pay all of the proceeds to your creditors.

Chapter 11: Reorganization

	$1,167	filing fee
+	$571	administrative fee
	$1,738	total fee

Chapter 11 is often used for reorganizing a business, but is also available to individuals. The provisions of chapter 11 are too complicated to summarize briefly.

Read These Important Warnings

Because bankruptcy can have serious long-term financial and legal consequences, including loss of your property, you should hire an attorney and carefully consider all of your options before you file. Only an attorney can give you legal advice about what can happen as a result of filing for bankruptcy and what your options are. If you do file for bankruptcy, an attorney can help you fill out the forms properly and protect you, your family, your home, and your possessions.

Although the law allows you to represent yourself in bankruptcy court, you should understand that many people find it difficult to represent themselves successfully. The rules are technical, and a mistake or inaction may harm you. If you file without an attorney, you are still responsible for knowing and following all of the legal requirements.

You should not file for bankruptcy if you are not eligible to file or if you do not intend to file the necessary documents.

Bankruptcy fraud is a serious crime; you could be fined and imprisoned if you commit fraud in your bankruptcy case. Making a false statement, concealing property, or obtaining money or property by fraud in connection with a bankruptcy case can result in fines up to $250,000, or imprisonment for up to 20 years, or both. 18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 1341, 1519, and 3571.

Chapter 12: Repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen

	$200	filing fee
+	$78	administrative fee
	$278	total fee

Similar to chapter 13, chapter 12 permits family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time using future earnings and to discharge some debts that are not paid.

Chapter 13: Repayment plan for individuals with regular income

	$235	filing fee
+	$78	administrative fee
	$313	total fee

Chapter 13 is for individuals who have regular income and would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time and to discharge some debts that are not paid. You are eligible for chapter 13 only if your debts are not more than certain dollar amounts set forth in 11 U.S.C. § 109.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, usually using your future earnings. If the court approves your plan, the court will allow you to repay your debts, as adjusted by the plan, within 3 years or 5 years, depending on your income and other factors.

After you make all the payments under your plan, many of your debts are discharged. The debts that are not discharged and that you may still be responsible to pay include:

domestic support obligations,

most student loans,

certain taxes,

debts for fraud or theft, debts for fraud or defalcation while acting in a fiduciary capacity, most criminal fines and restitution obligations,

certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers, certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury, and certain long-term secured debts.

Warning: File Your Forms on Time

Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information about your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. The court may dismiss your bankruptcy case if you do not file this information within the deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court.

For more information about the documents and their deadlines, go to:
<http://www.uscourts.gov/forms/bankruptcy-forms>

Bankruptcy crimes have serious consequences

If you knowingly and fraudulently conceal assets or make a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury—either orally or in writing—in connection with a bankruptcy case, you may be fined, imprisoned, or both.

All information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the U.S. Trustee, the Office of the U.S. Attorney, and other offices and employees of the U.S. Department of Justice.

Make sure the court has your mailing address

The bankruptcy court sends notices to the mailing address you list on Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Official Form 101). To ensure that you receive information about your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address.

A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case. If you file a joint case and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, the bankruptcy court generally will mail you and your spouse one copy of each notice, unless you file a statement with the court asking that each spouse receive separate copies.

Understand which services you could receive from credit counseling agencies

The law generally requires that you receive a credit counseling briefing from an approved credit counseling agency. 11 U.S.C. § 109(h). If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must receive the briefing. With limited exceptions, you must receive it within the 180 days before you file your bankruptcy petition. This briefing is usually conducted by telephone or on the Internet.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, you generally must complete a financial management instructional course before you can receive a discharge. If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must complete the course.

You can obtain the list of agencies approved to provide both the briefing and the instructional course from:
<http://www.uscourts.gov/services-forms/bankruptcy/credit-counseling-and-debtor-education-courses>.

In Alabama and North Carolina, go to:
<http://www.uscourts.gov/services-forms/bankruptcy/credit-counseling-and-debtor-education-courses>

If you do not have access to a computer, the clerk of the bankruptcy court may be able to help you obtain the list.
